CLUMBER CAVALCADE

Where Clumbers are Clumbers

Neuters and Show Dogs welcome!

(Neuters, any dog that has been de-sexed, speyed, castrated, neutered, etc!)

Entry fee: purple note donation, but not compulsory, in fact while the judge/s definitely aren't open to bribes officially (except doleful dog eyes and Clumber kisses can work wonders - but then again who is the judge ? No idea, we'll find a volunteer or two on the day!). However, the steward is open to bribes and those presenting a purple note or better WILL get a hug or a handshake, a pat for the dog AND a goodie bag!

PROCEEDS GOTO CSLV WELFARE FUND

One 'entry fee' per dog for the whole cavalcade - you/your dog can compete in as many classes as you like and are eligible for sticky dot and other prizes for each class. The exhibit to gain the most dots will win the Clumber Cavalcade Trophy.

THE PARADES:

For the Neuters

- under 2 years
- Over 2 and under 4 years
- Over 4 and under 6 years
- Over 6 and under 8 years
- Golden oldie over 8 years

For the non-Neuters/Show Dogs

- under 2 years
- Over 2 and under 4 years
- Over 4 and under 6 years
- Over 6 and under 8 years
- Golden oldie over 8 years

You do need to give the steward a very short non-tear jerking (as I may have to read these out!) few words about your dog!

OPEN TO ALL:

- Tallest dog
- Shortest (least tall) dog
- Longest dog
- Best Clumber ear shape
- Best Clumber ear size
- Longest front leg feathering
- Whitest coat
- Most beautiful face (dog, not handler!)
- Sweetest expression
- Most cheery dog
- The saddest expression (me if it is 35 degrees or hotter!)
- The most natural Clumber (ie the happiest and dirtiest)
- The best toned (sorry we can't justify fattest/skinniest)
- The most startling call/pet name
- The best trick
- The best recall
- The best retrieve
- The best heeling demonstration =
